

6 of the best Eye products

VitalEyes has three useful products: the Moisturiser for smoky atmospheres or tiredness, the Brightener peeps up your eyes and the Contacts Soother is for contact wearers. £3.59, widely available

Glasses holder to keep your specs and sunglasses safe when you're not wearing them. In polished wood for £7.50 or aluminium, £8.50, from Teacraft, who work with the world's poorest communities, see www.teacraft.org or call 0845 218 3960.

No7 Instant Radiance Concealer, great for disguising dark circles and bags and easy to apply. Good value at £12.00, available from www.boots.com and in Boots stores

Eye Repair Rx by Steven Victor, helps prevent puffiness, lines and dark circles and seems to improve firmness. Expensive but lasts for years. £75.00, available from Fenwicks, Harvey Nichols, or see www.stevenvictormd.com for more info

Polaroid sunglasses offer a high level of eye protection, blocking out harmful glare. We like their new Xoor for men. From £45 - £75, available at Specsavers, Asda, opticians and www.polaroidsunglasses.co.uk.

Dry Skin Eye Gel is for eczema sufferers and contains a plant extract called Cardiospermum, which acts as anti-inflammatory and is non greasy. £8.99, available online at www.skinshop.co.uk or call 0871 871 9975

