SERUMS

These ultraconcentrated potions (applied after cleansing, before moisturizing) are designed to treat overall complexion issues like dehydration or loss of elasticity. "Ingredients stay active longer in this type of liquid form than in a cream base, so incorporating a serum can deliver better results than using a moisturizer alone," says dermatologist Steven Victor.

▲ HYDRATING

Steven Victor MD Miracle Serum has nourishing ceramides, which promise to lock extra moisture into dehydrated skin. ($150, blissworld.com)

▶ FIRMING

Lumene Time Freeze Instant Lift Serum contains heather flower extract to firm up skin and help prevent free-radical damage. ($20, cvs.com)
